
Synopsis

God's Covenant of Love

God's love for humanity is profoundly expressed through His covenants. The Old Covenant is illustrated in the lives of Noah, Abraham, Jacob, David, and the nation of Israel, as seen in Genesis, Exodus, and Psalms. The New Covenant, mediated by Jesus Christ and established through His blood, is offered to all people.

This covenant is God's compassionate response to human well-being, needs, problems, and predicaments. It is rooted in His love and is guided by His grace and wisdom, encompassing His mercies, compassion, favors, blessings, and justice.

During this retreat, we will explore the profound significance of God's covenantal relationship with us and our response to Him. By understanding and embracing our position within God's Covenant, we can stand firm in our faith, assured that He is faithful to all the promises He has made to us.

In this assurance, we can truly experience the transformative power of God's Covenant of Love.
