
Course Synopsis

“PRAYERS THAT WORK” is a systematic and practical course designed to strengthen your relationship with God and see how God works on your behalf. This course will teach you solid foundation from the Word of God and help you to understand the principles of prayer – how to pray deeply and effectively.

The Word of God teaches us that there are different kinds of prayers, each with a specific purpose to achieve different results. As we understand the character of God, know His will and align ourselves with His purposes, we will see the Lord manifest Himself through our prayers. We will see powerful results!

As you see your prayers answered, it will transform your relationship with God, strengthen your faith and become partakers of His purpose.

Your prayer life will never be the same again!

Who should attend?

This course is for those who want to know how to pray effective prayers and see powerful results, to experience how God moves to perform His Word in your life.
